Steve Laury (Fattburger) * Rob Mullins (The Crusaders) * "Grooving for Heaven" Bass Video Series
Dominique Di Piazza (John McLaughlin Trio) * Maranatha! Music * Christian Musician Magazine columnist

Norm has gained recognition in the international bass community as a respected educator through his acclaimed bass instructional video series "Grooving for Heaven", which has been distributed extensively in the USA and abroad.

He performs regularly at clinics throughout North America and Europe (MTD Basses, EBS Sweden, Maranatha Music), and brings a diverse personal and musical palette to his artistry. This is perhaps best exemplified on his recent solo debut CD, Pondering the Sushi.

"If you're a bassist, chances are you've heard of Norm Stockton; if you haven't, you're missing out. Norm possesses the rare combination of exceptional chops and broad musical sensibility..."

Roland Users Group Magazine (Fall '01)

"Great technique...clean funk...Stanley-esque solo flurries...Norm can groove, too...his deep-pocketed, Marcus-like slap grooves will leave you pondering this California bassist's thumb."

Bass Player Magazine (Dec '95 & Aug '01)

"I endorse & highly recommend these videos...very well done!"

Abraham Laboriel Sr.

"This section (Modes - Vol. 2) alone is worth the price of both videos!"

Bass Frontiers Magazine (Jul/Aug '99)
